

ROSEMARY

INTRODUCTIONS

Welcome to Swastik Rosemary Estate — a destination where tradition meets precision, and nature's finest herb is cultivated with integrity and care. Located in an environment ideal for rosemary farming, we bring you a vertically integrated offering: fresh-cut rosemary, naturally dried herb, premium-grade rosemary essential oil, and strong, healthy saplings. Every product is a result of dedicated stewardship, sustainable practices, and a deep respect for the plant we grow.

OUR STORY

At Swastik, our journey began with a simple belief — that true quality comes from growing what you believe in. As natives of the region, we've spent years observing, learning, and perfecting the conditions needed to grow rosemary at scale without losing its purity.

The rich soil, gentle slope, and mild climate of our farm offer ideal conditions, allowing our rosemary to develop high levels of essential oils and a signature fragrance. What sets us apart is not just what we grow, but how we grow it — responsibly, consistently, and with unmatched attention to detail.

18 ACRES OF CULTIVATION EXCELLENCE

Our 18-acre rosemary estate is a model of controlled cultivation — spread across well-irrigated zones and managed through precision farming techniques. Every stage of the crop cycle is handled in-house: from organic input management and soil conditioning to pruning, harvesting, and post-harvest care. Our fields are optimized for maximum plant health and yield consistency, ensuring that whether you order fresh herbs or oil-rich dried material, you receive a batch that exceeds expectations every time.

OUR ROSEMARY COLLECTION

FRESH ROSEMARY

DRIED ROSEMARY

ROSEMARY OIL

From fresh herbs to essential oil, each product is grown, harvested, and processed on-site for unmatched quality.

- Fresh Rosemary: Hand-harvested at peak aroma, ideal for culinary and wellness use.
- Dried Rosemary: Shade-dried to preserve oils, color, and flavor; available in multiple cuts.
- Rosemary Essential Oil: Steam-distilled in small batches for pure, therapeutic-grade oil.

Farm to final form — we control every step.

OUR PRODUCT RANGE

We provide carefully processed rosemary products tailored for various industries:
